

Chinchilla Boarding Agreement

Cuddle Bug Chinchillas agrees to provide the following services: daily care, including but not limited to feeding, watering, and medications. Also included are dust baths and cage cleaning as needed. The chinchilla(s) will be handled daily unless instructed otherwise (see notes/special instructions section on the reverse). All medications and their instructions should be included in the same section. Extra fees will be charged for sick, injured, newborns and hand feeding.

All food (pellets, hay, and/or hay cubes), bedding material, toys, and treats will be supplied by the chinchilla owner. If this supply runs out, or if the owner chooses not to bring their own supplies, Cuddle Bug Chinchillas will use company supplies at an additional charge. (See list below) Supplies are sold in set amounts. Any left over will be sent home with the chinchilla(s).

Should the chinchilla(s) become ill, Cuddle Bug Chinchillas will contact the owner and take the chinchilla(s) to the veterinarian of the owner's choice within a reasonable distance. If the preferred veterinarian is too far, Cuddle Bug Chinchillas will take the chinchilla to a local, qualified veterinarian. All vet fees will be the responsibility of the chinchilla(s) owner. Please specify the maximum amount that can be spent for any treatment the animal requires.

The owner of this chinchilla agrees to pay $15 per chinchilla, per week for the care of the chinchilla(s) and to pick up the chinchilla(s) on the date specified below. If the chinchilla(s) is (are) not picked up on that date, and no additional arrangements have been made, a fee of $5 per chinchilla, per day will be charged for the chinchilla(s) to remain in the care of Cuddle Bug Chinchillas for up to 2 weeks. During that time, Cuddle Bug Chinchillas will make 3 attempts to contact the owner, via email or phone. If the owner of the chinchilla(s) can not be reached and has not made contact by the end of the 2 weeks, the chinchilla(s) will be considered abandoned and will become the property of Cuddle Bug Chinchillas.
